Satan The Name Of God

In the ancient religion god is the five elements of creation which from the symbol of the serpent and also the pentacle the ancient symbol of the head God as well. The name of Satan holds different meanings all relating to one thing. Being the head God and creator God.

Satanama in Sanskrit is the mantra that forms the core of all existence the five elements. S is fire, T is earth, N is air and M is water with the A being spirit. This forms the other famous symbol of the equal armed cross as well. These symbols are seen all over the ancient world. In Sanskrit the original language Satanama is the name of the highest God. The serpent is the five elements.

Satan also holds the meaning of Sat, King and An, God. Hence Satan is the King of the Gods.

Satan also means Eternal Truth in Sanskrit. But also the concept of the soul, eternity and cosmic order.

The five elements manifest the five bodies that form the individual the physical body, prana body, the Astral body and the mental and emotional bodies. These five things form the entire soul of which the body is part of. The five elements also manifest the chakra's the seven main chakras and the six side extensions.

In ancient Sumerian ENKI [Satan] comes to earth from heaven with the fifty An Gods and creates civilization. This is the fifty petals of the chakra's. From the crown to the earth. Satan, ENKI is the serpent God and rules the symbol the ancients called God, the serpent wand seen from Sumeria to India to Egypt, Greece and beyond. That is the symbol of ENKI. The Satanama is the five sounds that form the core of the Sanskrit alphabet which form the 50 petals of the chakra's and the nadis which generated the entire being. The serpent wand.

The ancient Sumerian's also called ENKI, Satan.

ENKI is a code EN means capstone and One. And KI means life force, serpent and King. The One is the untied soul all five elements perfected together into the light body which is the Ki. EN has the same number as Satanama which is a Sanskrit code for 10 expressed to its highest power of 100. Which is the number of the union of spirit and matter. The capstone is the symbol of the Grail the Magnum Opus the light body.

Satanama is an alchemical key to the transformation of the soul into the light body. Note the Yezidhi's call Satan also Melek Taus this means King of the Earth. The Tau cross is the ancient symbol of the perfected five elements as earth is what contains all the elements together into the physical body. The Tau cross is the symbol of eternal life.

Satan in Sumeria rules the Gish Gana tree. The tree of life and the water of life. Gana or Gama relates to the inner alchemical sexual union of the Chakra's which brings immortality. The Gama cross is the swastika the symbol of the five elements perfected and the union of the five bodies into the new light body. The tree of life of Enki is also called the Mish tree which means Mish, serpent saviour the energy that transforms the soul. Mish or Meshu is were the world Messiah comes from.

Satan in Sumeria was also shown as a serpent with a human head symbolically. This symbol is elsewhere among the Greeks and Egyptians. Its the risen serpent up the spine into the head and the new consciousness that comes from this. This is the meaning of the Halo around the head. The other symbol of Enki the Goat Fish is the Goat the crown and the tail of the fish the tail bone the root chakra united together. The risen serpent.

In ancient Sumeria it was stated that Enki created Adamu and Eva and breathed the breath of life into them the soul. And then taught them the knowledge of how to ascend thought the light body. This is also the serpent fire transforming the elements. The Yezidhi's and Mandeans state this actually occurred in Sri Lanka in the area called Kumara Kandam which is the Golden Age. In Sri Lanka they state Shiva ruled the first school there and created humanity in Kumra Kandam and taught them the wisdom of ascension. The Yezidhi's state that Sanat Kumara also called Skanda the original symbol of Shiva is their God, Satan. Shiva is called Sada Shiva which in Sanskrit is actually Sata Shiva the D and T are double letters and Sata means Eternal and Sada means Eternal. Shiva's trident is the serpent wand. Shiva's symbols are the serpent and pentacle.

Satan's ancient city in Sumeria was called Aridu not Eridu as the race of Adamu and Eva were called the Ari by the ancient Sumerian's. This is also the name of the serpent energy the light of the soul. Sata in ancient Egypt was the original head God called Sata the serpent of immortality as well.

The Greeks worshipped ENKI as Ioannes also called Dionysus. Ioannes is from the Babylonian name of Enki, Oannes. Ioannes was the core of the Greek religion as the Agathodaemon the Good Serpent that formed the symbol of the soul and the breath of life. And was the key to the light body.

In the earliest Dynasties of Egypt Sat or Sata, Satan was king over all the Gods. As know in Sanskrit Sata also spelled Satan is the name of the highest God and called the saviour God. This was also the case in ancient Egypt.

From the ancient Egyptian text the Papyrus of Nu we find something important.

Papyrus of Nu:

"I am the serpent Sata whose years are many,. I die and I am born again each day. I am the serpent Sata which dwelleth in the uttermost parts of the earth. I die, and I am born again, and I renew myself, and I grow young each day."[1]

In Egypt Sata is the serpent of the Taut which is the milky way galaxy. Which is the symbol of the saviour God and called the serpent rope to the ancient serpent cultures. Its also related to Orion. Its the symbol of the serpent energy flowing though the spine and soul.

"[my note Sata]He embodied immortality and was the "son of the Earth' reborn each day from the womb of the Great Mother." [2]

Sata was also called the serpent spirit or the good serpent in Egypt. The Nu Parpyrus is describing the fact Sata as a mantra unites the polarity of the sun and moon channels and causes the soul to regenerate. The earth is the symbol of the physical body that holds the other four bodies together which is to be transformed by the magnum Opus as part of the soul. Sata also spelled Satan is the serpent which gives eternal life. The serpent is also the Totem of the actual living God Satan. The same head God in Sumerian was called Satan and also Enki which means En, Lord and Ki serpent.
